

COMMUNITY LINK

Double tribute celebration dinner

A WHOLE community paid tribute to Luton Mayor Cllr Mick Guha and head of Denbigh High School, Yasmin Bevan.

The special celebration evening dinner in honour of the two leading members of the Asian community was arranged by the Mitalee Youth Association and held at the Simla Tandoori Restaurant in Luton's Upper Wellington Street.

Diners heard about the hard work in the town of the youth association – its name translated means friendship.

It has arranged trips abroad and also has plans for a cultural week in the summer.

Speakers said how proud they were to have members of their community in such high positions in Luton. Cllr Guha, who is Luton's first ethnic

BY STAFF REPORTER

Mayor, told of his ambition for youngsters in the up-and-coming generation to carry on the work.

He urged them to get involved in the life of the town and take up issues.

"There is no room for sitting on the fence," he said.

Mrs Bevan also talked about the great achievements which are possible for youngsters.

The school she now heads is set to play a leading role in the community, she said.

She will be working hard to see all the school's children are getting the best possible out of school life, she added.

● Luton Mayor Cllr Mick Guha, centre, pictured at a special celebration dinner organised by the Mitalee Youth Association. Also pictured with the guests is Denbigh School head teacher Yasmin Bevan.