

Honours galore for champs

LUTON community champions were invited to a second award ceremony in Luton this week. Young people from the Mitalalee Youth Association presented crystal vases to three MBE recipients – Joan Bailey, Wendy Gray and Ashuk Ahmed. Sergeant Peter Rawkins, who received the Queen's Police Medal for community cohesion, was also included, as were the chairman of Diverse FM, Mick Forster, and Mitalalee's Mr Fixit, Mehbab "Mugsy" Koyes. Ashuk Ahmed, Mitalalee's project co-ordinator, said to be selected for an award by the young people he worked with was "extra special". Pictured are the quartet who received recognition.

RETIREMENT LIVING | Security and independence

Come in From the Cold with
McCarthy & Stone

LUTON
Hughes Court, Lucas Gardens
Open Tues - Sat, 10.30am - 5.00pm
Prices From £155,950

